

COCKTAILS IN HAGÁTÑA

When you're looking for something fresh and quite delicious, Kitchen Lingo is the place to be.

WORDS BY VICTOR CALVO
IMAGES BY JESUS SIATAN JR.

DON'T WE ALL AGREE? We often find ourselves searching for a place to grab drinks in downtown Hagåtña. Occasionally the first thing that comes to mind is The Venue, but ever since Kitchen Lingo expanded their Hagåtña location, customers have been raving about the new cocktails to hit the place.

Kitchen Lingo is arguably the island's most crafty restaurant. What keeps customers going back is the fact that they continue to change up their menu and keep things interesting with their ingredients and their pairings. But something you may not be familiar yet is their new drink menu. Here are two of our favorite cocktails you've got to try!

The Vodka is the perfect drink to start with, especially if you've had a long day and you're looking to cool down. You should definitely start with something refreshing.

The Vodka is Tito's vodka infused with local basil, cucumber, and lemon syrup. It's fresh, light, and invigorating. If you like the fresh taste of goodness, then this should be your next favorite cocktail.

Another amazing cocktail you should try is The Rye. Whether you've had a good or a bad day, Bulleit Rye always feels right. Its deliciousness comes from dry sherry, turbinado syrup, Peychaud's Bitters, and passionate bartenders. It's an oaky, light smoke cocktail stirred to perfection with a hint of faint spice and a rim of citric goodness.

So remember, when you're searching for your next spot to grab a good cocktail, consider Kitchen Lingo. You'll thank us later! 🍹

BLURPS!

Be sure to let the bartender know you heard about their delicious cocktails from UNO Magazine. And when you're enjoying cocktail in Hagåtña don't forget to tag us by using #GuamAtItsBest in your posts!

Industry tip:

Every Monday customers in the food and beverage industry can enjoy 25% off their entire bill with proof of employment.